Mary Meditation

206: A New Way

Life requires, my children, a new way of being every day, a new way of seeing, a new way of experiencing. You are not exactly the same person today that you were yesterday because you have one more day's worth of experience shaping your soul, adding to your knowledge. It is ever so.

The Divinity within you is always reaching for ways to express itself more fully, whether it is through thought or voice or action. Divinity is always impelling you forward toward greater expression. My channel suggests a journal of growth. Like the parent who, at dinner, urges the child to share one thing learned that day, write the changes you experience in a journal. Over time you will be able to see what magnificent strides you have made, one lesson learned at a time.

Over time you will see how the Divinity within you keeps propelling you toward fuller expression. You will also see, through lack of entries, that you are holding yourself back. If you cannot catalog one insight, one small life lesson each day, then it is time to consider why this is so. Is your life already perfect – or is it so imperfect that you do not wish to examine it? Either way you are erecting barriers. If you believe your life is perfect and you wish it would always stay exactly the same, you are depriving yourself of more – more joy, more fulfillment, more abundance. Build upon what you have by sharing with others. This will bring you more and not diminish what you have in any way. Be the instrument of grace in the lives of others and grace will be added unto you.

On the other hand, if you perceive your life as too painful to examine, as lacking in one or many ways, it is surely time to release the pain, to move forward. The only way this can be accomplished is by changing your thoughts and re-creating your world. Acknowledge that your present way of thinking is not serving you and forgive yourself for shortsightedness. Recognize that holding anger, resentment, grudges – negative energy in any form – toward another individual or institution, or life itself, only drains you. You do not create peace in your life by embracing pain, only by loving peace and wanting it more than you want the pain. Forgiveness of yourself and others is the key.

Forgiveness, then growth, this will bring each of you, my dear ones, to a new way of being. Blessings and Delight Every Day,

Mother Mary

Just as a note: if you go to www.CircleOfIntetnion.com, my website, you will find a new category in the navigation bar on the left - Emotional Healing. This is the exercise that all of us at the School have been using for several months now, and it has proven itself to be a very powerful tool for positive change. It was channeled from Jesus and is a 2 minute exercise to release cellular memory.
