"I affirm gentle healing for the planet and peace and harmony for all." Pass it on!

Message from Mary

110: "Wouldn't It Be Nice" (with thanks to Abraham-Hicks)

"Wouldn't it be nice if . . ." are the words of Abraham-Hicks.* They are part of an exercise suggested in the book Ask and It Is Given. I wish to add my thoughts to Abraham's most worthy ones.

Abraham suggests using this phrase when moving from a position of doubt and worry to one of hope and love. When it is challenging to turn 180 degrees in your thinking, the phrase "Wouldn't it be nice if . . ." does the trick very neatly for you. It allows you to alter the feeling-thought in a substantial way, freeing your mind to take the next step to acceptance of your own creation.

For example, if you were wishing for increased abundance in your life, but could not seem to get past the thought of lack in your life, you might say, "Wouldn't it be nice if I had lots of money." That would produce a feeling of relief, security, and perhaps an urge to shop. You deserve all good things in this life, so these feelings are appropriate. Take that vibration of hope and security and apply it everyday, recognizing that funds are flowing to you, perhaps as checks in the mail or cash in hand. You create your own reality, whether you want what you are creating or not. I ask you now to consciously create, my children.

And I ask you also to create a better world as you recreate your own reality.

Wouldn't it be nice if the world were at peace now? If all beings lived in harmony and balance? If everyone had food, shelter and education?

Wouldn't it be nice if the Creator's abundance touched everyone? If everyone lived in joy and gratitude?

When you begin joyously wishing and affirming for yourself, my dear ones, take a moment and wish all good things for others as well. Your wishes will not only help others, they will come back to you as good returned to you from the Creator. Increasing the good for all increases your own good as well.

Accept miracles everyday.

Blessings to you all in this Season of Miracles,
Mother Mary

Our annual winter dinner has become the

LIGHTWORKERS MINI EXPO & POT LUCK DINNER!

On the first Sunday of December we will once again gather together at the Circle of Intention for our semi-annual Pot Luck Dinner, but this year we are blessed to be joined many of the new teachers, healers and readers who will be sharing their gifts, knowledge and talents with us in the coming year.

Bring a dish to pass and just spend the day among like-minded people or invest $5 in a mini-session with any of our Lightworkers. There will be many different offerings from channeled messages to Angel Card Readings, channeled music, reflexology, intuitive readings, chakra balancing, ion foot cleanse, and much more. Check out the Events page on the website for further information.

Also, I am putting together a series of GIFT BASKETS for sale that day. The themes are Self-Empowerment and Self-Nurturing. If anyone has anything they would like to contribute to the baskets please let me know.

P.S. You will also be able to purchase Gift Certificates from any of the Lightworkers!

All proceeds will go to the Church's Building Fund!

Which brings me to the BUILDING FUND UPDATE: The heaters have arrived and will be installed in about a week! Thank you to all those who have contributed so far. You are wonderful.

And there are more opportunities - we need about $150 to finish that job with all the extras necessary. We have a beautiful Light Blue floor and a white rug in the middle.

I have my eye on some stacking white chairs to replace the very eclectic mix we have now, so we will see if we have enough for that when all the other things have manifested.

We live in gratitude and peace.
